

Oracle Introduction for Experienced SQL Users

Course Duration: 2 days

Course Code: OIEU

Course Description:

This course is designed for anyone who needs to access and work with an Oracle Database. In conjunction with the Oracle PL/SQL course, this course is suitable for delegates intending to sit the; Introduction to Oracle: SQL and PL/SQL Oracle Certified Professional examination (1Z0-001). In conjunction with the Oracle9i SQL Advanced course, this course is suitable for delegates intending to sit the; Introduction to Oracle9i: SQL Oracle Certified Professional examination (1Z0-007).

Prerequisites:

Experience of using SQL with another relational database is required.

Relevant Certifications:

Oracle Internet Application Developer Rel. 6i Certified Professional

This course includes the following modules:

Course topics:

- The Basic SQL Select Statement
- Selecting Data from Multiple Tables
- Inner Joins, Outer Joins and Self Joins
- Hierarchical Queries
- Sub-queries
- Grouping and Sorting Output
- CUBE and ROLLUP features
- Character, Date and Numeric Functions
- Run-time Parameters and Variables
- SQL*Plus Control Parameters
- Creating and Changing Tables and Views
- Constraints and Indexes
- Inserting, Updating and Deleting Data
- Multi-Table Inserts and Merges
- Basic Transaction Control
- Controlling Access to the Database
- Related Data Dictionary Tables and Views

This course is available on the following scheduled dates. Discounts may be available for this course. Click a date to enquire for best price and availability.

Location	Duration	RRP	Sep	Oct	Nov	Dec	Jan	Feb
London	2 days	£725	20 - 21 27 - 28		1 - 2			7 - 8